

2024 Dementia Conference: research, prevention, diagnostics and treatment

Co-programmed by World Dementia Council

Shangri-La Hotel (by the Pearl River)
Guangzhou, China
November 9-10, Sat-Sun, 2024

Outline

The high-level academic conference is for clinicians, academics and industry professionals working in China with international experts participating in the meeting. The conference will be live streamed. The World Dementia Council is helping programme the meeting.

Day 1

9 November

Time	Outline
09.00-10.00	Plenary one: Welcome plenary Opening session
10.00-10.30	Dementia in China A keynote overview of the demographics of dementia in China, the research environment and treatment pathways.
11.00-11.30	Understanding disease, advances in research and understanding of different forms of dementia This session will open with a keynote address followed by a panel on global developments in understanding of disease mechanisms in Alzheimer's and other forms of dementia and reflect on research priorities in the decade ahead
13.30-14.00	Clinical trials This session will open with a keynote address followed by a panel on clinical trial development in China and globally focused on patient recruitment and the development of registries.
15.30-16.30	Diagnosing Alzheimer's and other dementias This session will open with a keynote address followed by a panel on developments in biomarkers and what their use in clinical practice looks like in the future

Day 2
10 November

Time	Outline
9.00-9.30	Treating Alzheimer’s and other dementias This session will open with a keynote address followed by a panel on the roll out of treatments, the experience of clinicians delivering treatments and the future trajectory of treatments.
11.00-12.00	Developments beyond dementia. Research and treatments in psychiatric illnesses This session will open with a keynote address followed by a panel on the treatment and care more broadly of people with neurological illness and contextualize care and science advancements.
14.00-15.00	Disease prevention interventions in at risk population This session will open with a keynote address followed by a panel on risk reduction and prevention in dementia. It will explore the science of prevention, what we know and don’t know and the interventions currently being delivered.
15.00-15.30	Use of Traditional Chinese Medicine (TCM). This panel session will consider lessons from traditional Chinese medicine and the scientific research into effective interventions
15.30-16.30	Closing Plenary Closing session of the meeting